

Exercise 7

Suppose all fundamental interactions conserve parity exactly. We want to explain to aliens what "left" and "right" mean.

- Explain why the coordinate systems

$$(x, y, z) \quad \text{and} \quad (-x, y, z)$$

would be physically equivalent in such a world.

- Explain why parity-violating weak interactions remove this ambiguity.

